

ACCESS & SUCCESS

South Texas College (STC) was selected as one of three community colleges in Texas by the 78th Legislature in 2003 to pilot offering a maximum of five applied baccalaureate degrees. During the 80th Legislature in 2007, the pilot status was removed, but maintained the maximum limit of five applied baccalaureate degrees.

The offering of baccalaureate degree programs at STC over the last 10 years has significantly impacted student access and success. Over 1,800 students have earned bachelor degrees with a notable number of them choosing to pursue post baccalaureate degrees at the Master's level and beyond.

STC Offers the Following Bachelor Programs:

- Technology Management
- Computer & Information Technologies
- Medical & Health Services Management
- Organizational Leadership
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing*

*Submitted for review and pending approval from SACSCOC, THECB, and TBoN.
