ADMINISTRATOR'S STATEMENT

Collin County Community College District continues to have the lowest tuition in the State of Texas. The maintenance and operation tax rate has remained constant for the last sixteen years, and the debt service has been reduced as the general obligation bonds have been paid down. Collin College endorses the letter dated July 16, 2014 from Reynaldo Garcia, President and CEO of Texas Association of Community Colleges, submitted to the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Budget Office on behalf of the Texas community colleges. Collin College's commitment to increasing student success is our key mission and is dependent upon the continued financial support provided by the Texas Legislature. Thus, it is imperative that funding from the state meets the demands to provide a quality education to a growing population at an affordable price.

Collin College has had remarkable growth since its inception in 1985. Collin College serves approximately 53,000 credit and continuing education students annually and offers more than 100 degree and certificate programs. The District is the home of three U.S Professors of the Year in the past nine years, three Texas Professors of the Year, two Fulbright Scholars, three Phi Theta Kappa Academic All - USA students in five years, and six Texas Minnie Stevens Piper Professors.

Sound, progressive fiscal management and visionary leadership have allowed the District to excel in many areas. Recent accomplishments include:

- The U.S. Congressional Veteran Commendation was awarded to a Collin College professor of Criminal Justice and a Collin College student and member of the Collin chapter of the Student Veterans Association of America.

Over the past decade semester credit enrollments grew from serving 34,820 students in the fall and spring of fiscal year 2004-05 to serving 53,820 students fall and spring through fiscal year 2013-14, a 55% increase. One of the fastest growing initiatives at Collin College is its dual credit program. As of spring 2014, more than 34 high schools in Collin County participate in the dual credit program. In Spring, 2014, 2,587 students were enrolled in dual credit classes throughout Collin County, a 7.1% increase over the dual credit enrollment in Spring 2013. Collin County continues to be one of the fastest growing areas in the region. The US Census shows a growth rate of 39% from 2002 to 2012 in Collin County. The population according to the US Census Bureau was 782,341 in 2010 and the estimated population as of 2013 is 854,778, a growth rate of 9.3%. This growth pattern in population is expected to continue into the future. Our enrollments are expected to continue to increase over the next several years based on Collin County's population growth coupled with our offering a quality education at an affordable price.

Collin County Community College District serves one of the most rapidly growing areas in the country, and the county is expanding in general population as well as in the number of businesses and industries located in the area. The responsibility to respond to the post-secondary needs of the county -- job training, transfer education, and education for lifelong learning – requires the District to place major emphasis on the recruitment and employment of competent faculty and staff, the development of qualified educational programs and services, and the acquisition of state of the art facilities and instructional equipment. Collin County has one of the highest average education levels in the state, resulting in the need to provide continuing education, contract training, and professional development to a highly skilled workforce. The District also offers students and members of the community a wide variety of theatre, music and dance concerts, art exhibits, athletics events, and a guest lecture series.

The county continues to see growth in its senior population. Collin County Community College strives to meet the needs of the senior population through our Seniors Active in Learning (SAIL) program, an education and social program designed for seniors. The District's fitness centers, gymnasium, libraries and tennis and racquetball courts are also available to the public as well as students.

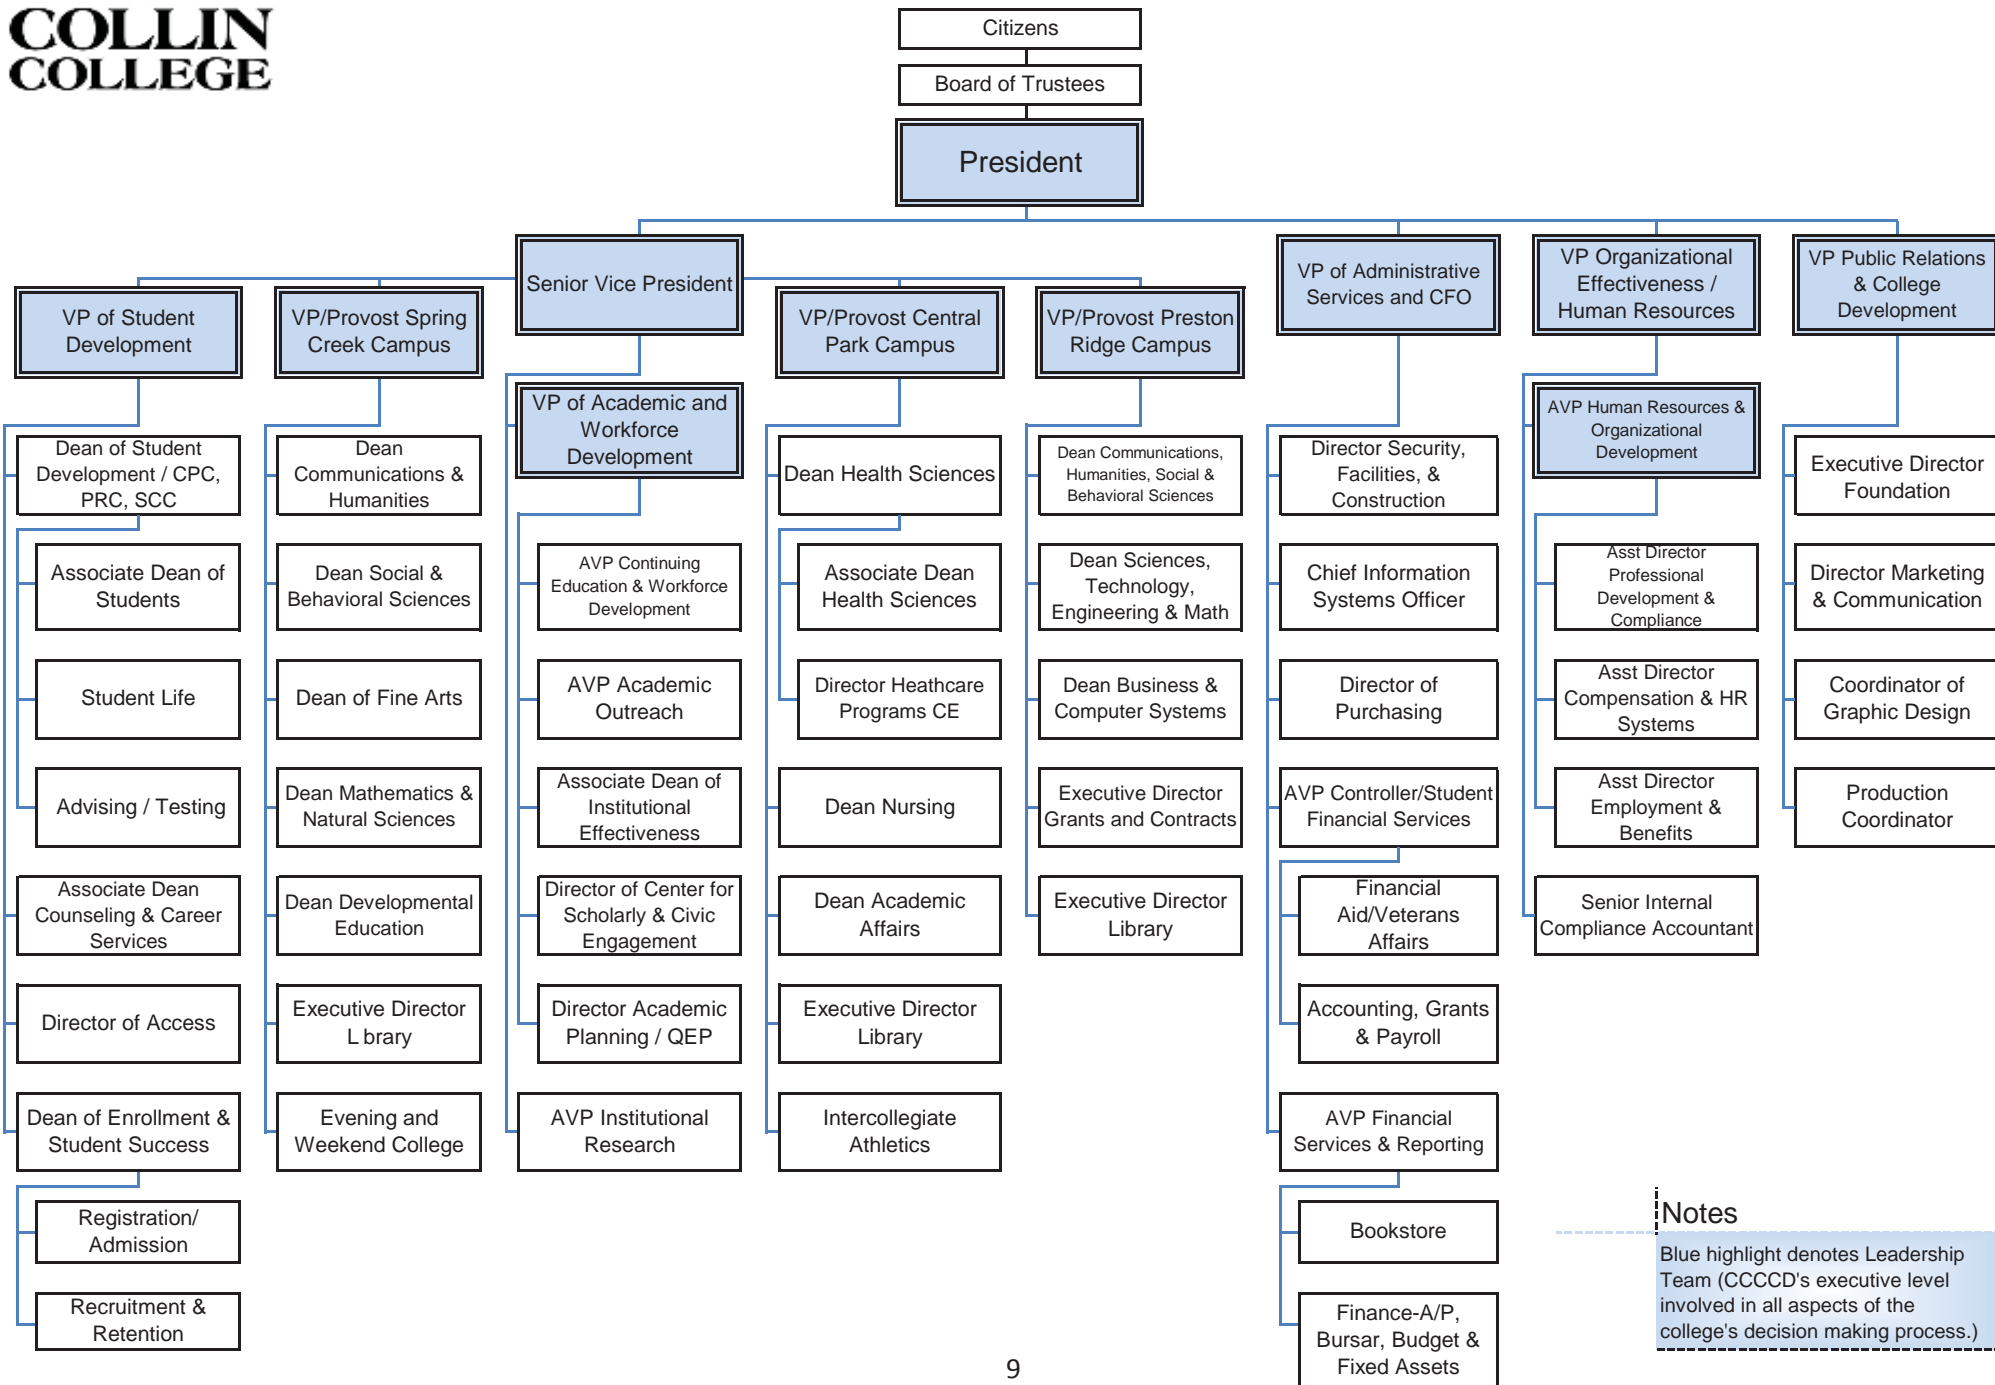

The college's program development will be based on the above noted trends as well as the following:

- Rapid increases in the emergence of new occupations as a result of more and more industries moving to the area
- Greater percentage of women in the workforce
- Increased role of technical advancements displacing greater numbers of currently employed
- Increased accountability and improved performance demanded of all public agencies
- Increased importance placed on international and inter-cultural understanding
- Continued inward migration of people into Collin County
